

LOST TO THE DARKNESS

Madness

You have descended into the dark depths of purest Madness! With a final quiver, you crumple to the floor and slip into a catatonic state that you are unlikely to ever recover from.

Your Hero is, for all intents and purposes, considered to be Dead.

DELUSIONS

Madness

Your fractured state of mind is in shambles, and you are ready to slip over the edge at any moment.

Any further Madness Chart rolls are only made on a single D6. This Madness is +1 to the roll to Heal during an Exorcism of Madness at the Church in Town.

THE ITCHING

Madness

Your skin burns and itches as you scratch at it feverishly. Why isn't anyone else scratching??

At the start of each turn, you take 1 Hit, as you claw at your skin.

IT'S COMING FOR YOU!

Madness

How does it know your name??? You can hear it calling you in the dark! What does it want?

Whenever the Hold Back the Darkness roll is failed (including doubles that would fail), you take D3 Sanity Damage, ignoring Willpower saves.
